In the totality of the circumstance, especially going by the spirit of the decision of the Apex Court in Umadevi (3) case (supra), the resolution dated 09..07..2007 and Ext.P4 judgment rendered based on the said resolution, I am of the view that justice demands a direction to the respondents to revise the rank list that was published for appointment to the post of last grade servants under IHRD published on 19..03..2010 by considering the marks of those among the petitioners who would have been and could have been included in the short list had the marks to which they are entitled in terms of Rule 5.2 of Ext.P5, been added to the marks secured by them in the written test for the purpose of taking them within to the cut off mark. The respondents are therefore directed to identify such candidates among the petitioners who should have been included in the short list in case of such a calculation and include such of the petitioners in the rank list that was published on 19..03..2010 and to revise the same accordingly. As already held, in case of such persons they shall be awarded only for the limited purpose of taking them to the prescribed cut off marks of 59. In other words, in their case, marks obtained in the written test and grace marks shall not exceed 59 marks. With respect to claim of the petitioners in W.P.(C) No.19339 of 2010, there cannot be any dispute with regard to their eligibility for being considered for appointment based on their ranking in the rank list dated 19..03..2010. However, in their case also their ranking may be altered in case of necessity, for the purpose of carrying out the above directions. But, as already held, before operating the rank list dated 19..03..2010 respondents 1 and 2 shall revise the same in accordance with the directions made above, at any rate, within a period of the month from the date of receipt of a copy of this judgment and, it will be open to them to operate such revised rank list for the purpose of effecting appointments against the vacancies notified and occurring during the life period of the list".

In compliance with the directions of the Hon'ble High Court the Rank list published vide Notification read as 19..03..2010 above is hereby modified and published accordingly on condition that other terms and conditions of the rank list remain unchanged.
